

"I'VE SUCCEEDED BECAUSE I'M VAIN"

May Cahill.

"Vanity? I believe in vanity; you can't get away without it. I am vain, and am glad of it."

"I've succeeded, because I am vain."

So said May Cahill, playing "A Night in Chinatown," a vaudeville sketch.

"There are plenty of people to say bad and cruel things about